He was gifted with a beautiful singing voice and has sung at First Lutheran, First Presbyterian, and the Jewish Synagogue Ohabai Sholom. David will be remembered by his family and friends as a giving, caring person, who enjoyed living life to the fullest and a person who was loved by so many. David is survived by his parents Frank Boone and Ann Davison, his twin sister Kristyn Boone, and a host of uncles, aunts, and cousins. The family has requested that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to St. George's music program or Room in the Inn ministry. “ To The Family of David Boone, I would like to express my deepest condolences to the entire family. Whenever we lose someone whom we love so dearly, it can bring unimaginable pain. As you face this most difficult time, I pray that you can find peace and comfort in God's promise at Rev. 21:3,4 He will soon "wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a beautiful ,peaceful time we have to look forward to. Please hold this promise close to your mind and heart. As you do, you all with dwell kindly in my thoughts and prayers. With warm Christian love and deep respect.

“ News of David's death was announced at choir practice at First Pres Wednesday night and prayers offered for his family. I remember David's singing with us in earlier years as well as his working with the boychoir with Andrew Risinger as director, while I accompanied. Indeed, he was gifted with a beautiful singing voice! He's gone too soon.
