

Deborah Jo Bryant

June 2, 1954 - February 19, 2022

Deborah Jo Bryant (DJ), 67 of Clarksville, Tennessee passed away Saturday February 19, 2022 at her residence after a long illness.

She was born on June 2, 1954 in Nashville, TN to Crockett Eugene Bryant and Wanda Mae Long.

A 1972 graduate of Stratford High School in East Nashville, she went on to graduate from the The University of Kentucky. She spent her career in the construction management and mechanical engineering field. With projects ranging from the construction of Nissan Motor Manufacturing to Abbott Laboratories, the ones she was most proud of were during her 20 years spent at Ft. Campbell, KY as a civilian contractor.

She enjoyed the little things in life.

A History buff at heart, she enjoyed learning about The British Monarchy and ancient civilizations.

Along with always “doodling” her next “project” on whatever piece paper was available, she loved music and to travel. She was passionate about protecting Mother Earth and preserving her Cherokee heritage.

She rose to the occasion of life’s many challenges and obstacles facing them head-on and with the heart of the warrior she was.

She was preceded in death by her parents, brother Harold Wayne Bryant, and sister Karen Bryant Conyer.

She leaves behind her spouse Cora Bryant, brother Steven Eugene Bryant along with several nieces and nephews.

No services are planned and a private memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations to St. Jude's Children Hospital would be appreciated.

"The two most important days of your life are the day you are born, and the day you find out why."

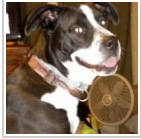

Mark Twain

“ She was one of the strongest women I have ever met and had a pleasure of knowing. I will treasure all the moments and the memories I had the pleasure of making in the time I was blessed to have been given to share with her. I know my life was enriched by having known her. Fly high my dear friend. Know you are still loved and missed.
