

Doris C. Jackson

April 21, 1925 - December 23, 2014

Doris C. Jackson, age 89 of Nashville. Tuesday evening, December 23, 2014 Doris Jackson crossed the finish line and became victorious over a lifetime of physical infirmities.

Not just by outliving her frailties but by gracefully clinging to the hope of the Gospel. She knew by faith an inheritance was being kept for Her in heaven, 1 Peter 1: 3-5. Doris (Mom) was born in Ballard County Kentucky and lived in most of her married life in southern Illinois where she and her husband were in the Florist business. For the past 29 years she called Nashville home. Doris loved people and this was evidenced by her many close friends throughout her life.

Doris is predeceased by husband of 38 years James Jackson, mother, brother and sister. She is survived by her son Doyle of Nashville and brother Maurice (Jean) Dunn, Wickliffe, Kentucky. No services are planned at this time.
