“ Dorris Barnhill and Johnny Wilson were two peas in a pod, together in friendship since they were children. My acquaintance with Dorris has been for the past 54 years, he was a staple in Johnny's and my life. He and Johnny were true friends that literally lasted a life time. They were there for each other through thick and thin, good times and bad. Dorris and Johnny showed me what real friendship was and I honestly believe each would have laid down their lives for the other if it were ever needed. A real friend is a rare find and I will be forever thankful that Dorris was that friend to my Johnny.
