“ Michelle, Melody and family.

I want to share this with you. When my mother passed away at age 57. I was 27 and Scott was 3-1/2.

The minister came to our home the day after the funeral. He told me, "if you take all the days and years to come without her, you won't make it. But everybody can make one day at a time." I have clung to this through many terrible times in my life.

May God be with you all. I love you and feel so badly that I couldn't be there for you.

I keep you all in my prayers.

Love, Grandma Barb

“ Dynna always knew how to make me feel better. She took me in when I was down and out. She treated me like I was her own and I felt like she was my second mother. I remember taking Dynna and Michelle to the doctor not to long ago, and even though she did not feel well she still made us laugh all the way there. Dynna just wanted to make everyone smile no matter the situation. She loved her kids more than anything in this world. We all miss and love you Dynna. R.I.P

“ It is sad to loose someone dear to us, but a trip we will all have to take at some point. To live, love and honor God, and be ready for that time, is our purpose in life. The only thing we leave behind are the memories and moments that we touch each others lives. May God richly bless your memories of Dynna, and the love she shared with her friends and family.
