

Edith " Nonnie" Elizabeth Smith

November 21, 1928 - December 13, 2020

Edith Elizabeth 'Nonnie' Hunter Smith, Age 92 of Nashville, passed away Dec. 13, 2020.

Preceded in death by her husband, L.N. Smith Jr.; daughter, Gayla Richardson; grandson, Wally Lancaster.

She is survived by her daughter, Sandra (Virgil) Lancaster; son, Lindsey "Skip" Smith III; brother, Andrew Hayes (Joyce) Hunter; grandchildren, Bethany Lancaster, Shane (Renee) Richardson, Wendy (Brian) Cond, Janna (Deren) Temple, L.N. 'Chip' (Stormi) Smith; great-grandchildren, Brooklyn Honeycutt, Madison Richardson, Brodie Richardson, Macayla Moss, Dylan Temple, Ryder Temple, Tatum Smith, and Sawyer Smith; nieces, Cathy Rau, Lee (Charles) Landis, and Starling (Hamilton) Sellers; nephews, Perry (Mary) Pugh and Andy (Bonnie) Hunter; many loving cousins and many friends made during her many years in retail (you know who you are).

Nonnie was known for her baking, and especially for her rum cakes (only one piece because you had to drive home), chess pies, and cheesecakes. She always remembered everyone's birthday, no matter who you were.

The family would like to send their sincere gratitude and love to the social workers and nurses of Alive Hospice.

In lieu of flowers please make Donations in her name to Alive Hospice, St. Jude's, or for Breast Cancer.

A graveside service will be at 2:45pm, Friday, Dec. 18 at Spring Hill Cemetery.

“ *Skip, Sandy, Bethany, Shane, and Edie's precious family. I want you all to know how special Edie was as friend and cousin to me. I was the youngest of the Perry /Hunter cousin clan and the others never had time to include me, but Edie took me under her wing and made sure I was taken care of and accepted. She taught me to make fudge and when we both lived in Murfreesboro at the same time, we went to church together. I won't be able to join you tomorrow at the gravesite, but my thoughts and prayers will be right with you. She is now in heaven with the Lord she loved. In Christ,
Mary Jo*

Love you too! She always loved to share her memories with you for all of us kids. She loved her family and loved to share all the names, stories, and other fun facts with us so we could know and remember our family history.
