

Egbert W. "Bert" Kuhlman

March 31, 1936 - June 20, 2026

Egbert W. "Bert" Kuhlman passed away peacefully at the age of 90, leaving behind a legacy of dedication to family, friendship, service, and hard work.

Bert was born to Egbert W. Kuhlman, Sr. and Barbara Bomholt Kuhlman. He was preceded in death by his parents; his sisters, Mary Jean and Rita; brother-in-law, Charlie Magness; his nieces, Karen Magness and Julie Marie Mudd, and his nephew, Michael Magness.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 34 years, Maggie; his daughter, Renee; his stepson, Bill Rowzee (Kim); his nephews, Chuck Magness and Bill Magness (Sandy); his nieces, Linda, Sue (Tracey), Julie Magness, along with Maggie's large family and extended family members and friends.

While serving in the United States Army, Bert was stationed in Heidelberg, Germany, where he formed enduring friendships with Trav, Steve, and Mikey. Those relationships remained an important part of his life for many years.

Bert was born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio. He attended St. Xavier High School and the University of Cincinnati, where he earned a degree in Economics and was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

He built a successful career in investment brokerage with Merrill Lynch before pursuing his entrepreneurial spirit through Bert W. Kuhlman, Inc., a custom home-building company. In both professions, he was respected for his integrity, thoughtful approach, and commitment to excellence.

Those who knew Bert will remember his sharp mind and sense of humor. He enjoyed making others laugh and had a knack for delivering a well-timed joke, often accompanied by the familiar sparkle in his blue eyes.

Above all, Bert was devoted to the people he loved. He cherished time spent with family and took pride in the life he built through perseverance and dedication. His kindness, reliability, and wit will be remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

He will be dearly missed.

Funeral arrangements at Bert's parish in East Nashville, Church of the Most Holy Name, 521 Woodland Street, will be posted here when finalized. Burial arrangements, when finalized, will be at St Augustine Cemetery in Lebanon KY.
