“ I worked with "Bo" many years at MNPd.. We were both in Traffic Division and I knew he was a good person because he always tried to help his fellow man. He always respected his job and loved what he did. R.I.P. my brother in blue. My prayers are with his family and please remember that he is just a prayer away anytime you need to talk... Sgt. “ To Mrs. Gale, Matthew, Rebecca, and young Henry - please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. From the first time I met Bo, I knew there was to be an irreplaceable relationship....as my friend, my mentor, my confidante. We shared so, so many stories of our past, of how much he cared about and how proud he was of his family and we even swapped a recipe or two. I'll be privileged to share the knowledge he shared with me and remember him always for who he was and what he stood for. Rest easy, Bo...until we can visit again.

“ I will miss you dearly Bo. You were like a father to me for many years as you were one of the last links to my Dad, and I will cherish all the hours that we talked and shared together. I will always respect and carry on the knowledge and integrity that you shared with me. You were a true friend and mentor, and one of the best Supervisors that I have ever had. I will carry on in your honor Sir. My sincere condolences to Mrs. Gale, Matthew, Henry, and all of the family and friends.

In the words of my good friend, "Bo" at midnight December 31st or 1 past midnight Jan 1st 2000. "Buddy, we're here in Joelton and nothing has crashed, the lights are all still on and except for the sound of fireworks and an occasional gunshot, the world didn't end. And if everything is alright in Joelton in this New Year, it's alright everywhere." My assignment at WSM Radio for the new Millennium had been to ride with Bo and call in a story right after midnight. I used his words to tell the story from the Metro Police Department ride along. He was one in a million and a good friend. RIP ole FRIEND.
