“ Most of my memories of Aunt Christine are from childhood. The things I remember the most are how kind she was, my mammy (her sister Linda) doing her perms, that time I was a ding dog and refused to wear sunscreen at aquatic camp resulting in blisters and being laid up on her couch as a result, and her incredible peanut butter fudge that was a holiday staple. She was a wonderful woman who lived a life worth living. Rest in piece Aunt Christine and give Mammy and Pappy a HUGE hug for me.
