

Eric Dennis

September 11, 1972 - May 13, 2021

Eric Dennis went home to heaven on May 13th 2021. Eric was preceded in death by his Mother and Father, Arvis and Barbara Dennis. He entered this world on September 11, 1972 in Vicksburg, Mississippi.

Eric was a loyal and loving brother, son and friend who never wavered in the expression of unconditional love. Eric was beloved by his 2 nieces. He found no difficulty in winning the heart of a child by showering them with love and kindness and his beautiful humor. They will miss him dearly. Eric and sister Jennifer had an unbreakable bond that was tested through a multitude of trials, that only strengthened the bond. Jennifer and Eric laughed together, mourned together and many times over they sang together. If together in a house for any amount of time there would be the sudden and spontaneous bursting out of Song, followed by laughter. This is Joy.

Eric was a dedicated son who stepped into the gap to care for his ailing grandparents after the death of his Father. Eric was also steadfast in his loving support for his beloved Mother who passed away with Alzheimer's. They are all together in Heaven now.

For anyone blessed to know Eric, they were blessed to experience joy and laughter. They witnessed a lovely man who did not take himself too seriously, but took helping and supporting others very seriously. The imprint he made in so many lives can never be erased. He will be deeply missed. In lieu of flowers please make donations to the Alzheimer's Association, alz.org.

“ Oh my goodness. I didn't know. :(Eric was one of those personalities I always knew from first grade onward. He was the first person outside my family to appreciate my artwork. This breaks my heart. Gone too soon. I hope you're resting somewhere full of joy and laughter, where everything makes sense. 🥹

“ I didn't know Eric had passed until a couple days ago. I'm very saddened by his passing. I worked with him at CompUSA for a couple of years and in that short time, Eric made a lasting impression on my memories. He was always so sweet, kind and funny. The world has lost a truly wonderful person. I'm sorry I didn't stay in touch like I should have. I pray that his family and friends are finding some comfort and healing during this time of loss.

“ I had no idea he has passed. I have been trying to locate him. I am so sorry for your loss. He was the BEST Singer I knew. We sang together a while back and has so much fun. I can not wrap my head around this. I have missed him so. I know he is making great music and lifting his voice in the best angel choir. God bless the family.

“ Dear Jennifer aka “Jenny Penny” (from when we were all itty bitties at Momo and Papa’s for holiday “get togethers” . I’m guessing you liked that rhyme as much as I took to “Pam SPAM “. Sigh...to be children together again. The nicknames brought a bittersweet smile today, thinking of all the precious memories we shared growing up. Life and loss is so hard sometimes and never easy to understand.

Eric was always a ray of sunshine on social media. Growing up, we either heard him singing and entertaining in person with your parents and grandparents at Momo and Papa’s or Momo was playing an old cassette they’d leave her of him singing. She was always so proud to play those cassettes from your family. It’s a shame there was no TikTok and YouTube to have highlighted his talent as a child or he’d have certainly achieved the recognition he was deserving of. However, I believe he was most proud of being your big brother and the uncle you gave him the honor of becoming. The pictures certainly reflect his pride and joy.

Please know we are all grieving with you for your loss. Even though we know we’ll see our loved ones again, it still hurts deeply to lose them here on earth. Grieve the loss of your beloved brother, Eric, in whatever way helps you to carry in your heart the warmth of his smile, the tenderness of his bear hugs and legacy of his love.

*Much love, always,
Pamela Kay Connery-Bischoff (Inman) and Ben Bischoff*

“ My memories of Eric date back to middle school and high school. Though we never crossed paths again after high school, I can still hear Eric’s squeal when we’d see each other in the halls and feel his absorbing embrace when he hugged me. It was always pure joy to be in his presence. The atmosphere was electric around him and he never missed giving me a hug. His love poured from him.

Eric was truly a being of pure love and light.

I love you, Eric. Thank you for loving and accepting me like you did. Thank you for seeing me and being wild with me. Fly High Freebird-

I am so sorry to hear this. We went to school together from kindergarten until high school. Did many plays together. Rode the same bus together. He didn't belong to any one group because he was kind to everyone. Always a smile on his face. He could sing , act, he could do it all! I never heard anyone say anything negative about him , other than what a great guy he was. I know he is singing joyfully in that Angel choir and your mom and dad are happy to hear his voice again. He was special. I know I don't have to tell you that, but everyone that knew him loved him. Prayers for you during this time. I have also lost my parents and my only brother recently and it is so hard. My prayers are with you and your family.
