“ The times I remember spending you were filled with love and laughter. I only wish I would have spent more time with you but for many reasons we were not able to build the father daughter relationship we should have had. I will always regret that. If you heard a word I said as I stood by your side in your last days, you know how sorry I am. With all my love, may you rest in peace.

“ Through all the years & all the tears & all the laughs we shared, the jokes we told & the joints we rolled, was all done with love and care. never forget the clown at the liquor store in detroit, or the helicopters in the air, searchlighting. Double first cousins we may be, but you'll always be my brother to me. Thanks for our memories. I'll miss you always, love you forever. Till we meet again, Goodnite
