

Frances Henry

November 8, 1920 - February 8, 2014

HENRY, Frances, 93, of Nashville, TN, passed away February 8, 2014. She was a loving mother who raised 3 children before, during and after WWII. Frances was a proud participant of the Greatest Generation and made her contribution to the war effort by operating cranes at a steel mill while her husband served in the US Army overseas. Postwar, she was active in the American Legion Auxiliary and became a lifetime member. Known as Petie to her family, she was a vivacious woman who enjoyed her family, her travels, reading & writing, music and even more domestic pursuits of cooking & sewing. She loved her Lord & Savior, her family, The United States, Tennessee and especially her Nashville Home. Preceded in death by her daughter, Henrietta Wise. Survived by her sons, Duff "Hank" & Bill Henry; brother, Calvin Duff; numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren & great-great grandchildren. Visitation will be Friday from 1 to 2pm at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home. Graveside service will be held at 2:30pm at Spring Hill Cemetery. “ I absolutely love you so very much, Great Grandma. I miss you a lot. I cried a lot, I didn't even want to go to school on Monday or even this week, but I had to. I loved it when u told us your stories when you where young, I enjoyed them. I remember when I would take your hat off and giving it back to you and messing with you lots, I miss talking to you. I love you so very much, I even cried at school. I play sports and when I score a point or do something cool or amazing, it will always be for you Great Grandma. I pray for you and myself. I graduate this year from High School, and that day when I graduate, it will be for you. You will be missed. Love you Great Grandmother!
