“ Frank Marinaro was a very good friend. He would do anything for anyone. He was not in the least bit a selfish person. He never talked much about himself. Frank did not need much; did not ask for much; did not expect a lot out life. Aside from racing, his pets and family were the most important things in life. He often talked about his mom and dad, remembering their restaurant when he was growing up. He has now joined them in Heaven. Rest in Peace my friend.
