May 11, 1956 - August 22, 2022

Garry Alan Franks, aged 66, passed away at home on August 22, 2022 in Goodlettsville, Tennessee.

Visitation will be held at Goodnaz Church, 400 Loretta Drive, Goodlettsville, TN 37072 on Sunday, August 28, 2022 from 1-3pm with services immediately following the visitation.

Garry was born in Savannah, Tennessee on May 11, 1956.

Throughout his life, he had many hobbies. Some of his absolute favorite pastimes over the years included: spending time with his loving family, watching football (he was a huge Vols & Titans fan), playing golf, riding on his motorcycle, listening to Old Gospel music, and being active in his church community at Goodnaz.

Family meant everything to Garry. His love for his wife and children was reflected in everything he did. He was a great husband to Jeannine for 36 years, as well as an amazing father to both of his children, Matthew and Maggie.

Garry truly was the definition of a fighter. His story will inspire others for many years and decades to come. Garry's family is proud of how strong of a fighter he was throughout all the battles he faced and are at peace knowing he is with Jesus and no longer in any pain.

He is survived by Jeannine (wife), Matthew (son), Maggie (daughter), Dick (brother), Jade and Savannah (nieces), Amanda (daughter-in-law), and dog (Sadie).

He was preceded in death by his parents, Betty (mother), Herbye (father).
