“ Dear Pam & Lloyd,
It has been a long time since we last connected, Pam. This is Anita your old penpal from Australia. Trust you remember me?
Long time ago, Pam, you told me about angels and I want to tell you about a dream I had on Monday 12 January 2015, Melbourne time. Which would have been the 11th on your side of the world.
Dream was as clear as a bell, you and Lloyd and I have never had a dream about either of you before.
We all seemed to be in a hospital room, then I went outside and there, in a garden, was two huge beautiful trees in flower. A magnolia and a dogwood.
Then I woke up wondering what in the Sam Hell that was all about! Thought I'd Google you and Lloyd's name and...here I am....passing on the message. No idea what it means. Sure hope you see this entry.
May your memories keep you warm.
Blessings, Anita Joy

“ Growing up in the old neighborhood (Faulkner Dr.-Willow Ln.) Your dad George Sr. Was among the constants. So many fond memories of camping, boating, cookouts, and etc. He was such a good man!! I used to stop and chat with him when he was outside on rides through the neighborhood... he always loved talking about the motorcycles I was on.. which led to his motorcycling days :) To the family Debbie, Faye, Lloyd, and George.. you have my sincere condolences and prayers for comfort will be said ^j^
