“ We are saddened by the sudden loss of our dear cousin Ed. So many wonderful memories we will all carry of him, we loved to tease whenever our Steelers played his Titans. Ed was always so kind and fiercely loved his family. If there was a wedding in Pittsburgh you could bet he and Pat would be here. When our parents passed they were here to comfort us. Pat and family we are all so sorry we can not be there to hold and hug you all because of our family members health circumstances. Just know how much we love and mourn with you.

With much love,

Your Pittsburgh cousins❤️

“ Pat, we are deeply sorry for the sudden loss of Ed. Please accept our heartfelt condolences. It is/was truly a pleasure to have gotten to know Ed. Someone as special as Ed is/was will never be forgotten. If there is anything we can do let us know.

We know it does not seem so now, but in time, it will be a small everyday occurrences you will remember the most - the laughs, the stories, the smiles. Although it might seem like the pain will never go away, it is these memories that will help push the sorry away and bring back happier feelings.
