“ Ginger was my first friend. We met in 1st grade and remained good friends untill 7th grade when my family moved across town. Over the next several years we went our own ways with new friends and intrest. My only regret is that we didn't keep in touch thru the years. Ginger I will miss you and you will always be in my heart! Ms Maude may the lord lift you up during this difficult time.

“ I am so lucky to have been able to see Ginger this past summer at our 30th class reunion. I moved from Nashville just before our senior year and have not seen her in years. I have some wonderful childhood memories. We would spend the night with each other and listen to scary stories on our transistor radios. There were sleepovers at her house and someone's bra would end up in the freezer. Then she was there to comfort me when my dad had open heart surgery. She was fun! I know she will make heaven a wonderful place to be and I will look forward to seeing her there one day. Love you Ginger!!!
Ms. Maude may God comfort you during this loss. Remember you are loved.

“ First off....How do I choose only 1 memory? There are so many.. For anyone who knew Ginger then I don't have to tell you how very special she was.. She never met a stanger and she was unforgettable! I guess my fondest memory is the time she and I went to Alaska. Oh boy! Did we have a blast! Can you believe we went all the way to Alaska to spend 4 days...What! Ginger immediately fell in love with Alaska...and later returned to Alaska with her mom (Maude) My most precious memory is the quiet time I spent with her last weekend and the heart to heart conversation we had on Saturday Oct 3, 2009 - Ginger is forever loved and will be forever missed by many.
