“ Gloria and I became friends when I was taking care of Mrs. Ola Dixon. We then became sisters from another Mother. Love the fun we had together. My heart is broken and my prayers are for the Risner and Dixon family. It is such a loss. Sleep in peace sweet lady. I love you.

“ I knew Gloria back when she was in high school. Her family attended Carroll Street Chapel where my father was pastor. We had many a fun times together at church. She was such a sweet person. My father retired because of illness and we moved to Alabama. I lost contact with her until three months ago. We reminisced and shared memories. She contacted me last Thursday wanting my phone number so she could text me. I never got a chance to call or text her. I'm so glad we made contact one last time. Loved your mother. Please know of our prayers for your family.

“ Working with Hoss for over 30 years I got to know Gloria quite well. They were like a brother and sis in law to me and I will cherish the years of wonderful friendship we shared. If two people were ever meant to be together, it was them. While we are sad to say goodbye to Gloria, I am envious of their reunion, together again as it should be. May God continue to watch over Brian, Melissa, Demetrius, DeMonico, Emily and Jeremy. We love you all. Teresa De.
