“ Hayley, I love you so much. I know that you are watching down on me to keep me safe. Every time I sit and think about you I remember us coming out of that Greek restraurant and some guy was backing up and you were so quick to say “watch where you’re going  you almost hit my little cousin.” And just thinking about how protective you are of me. Thank you so much for being the best big cousin ever. Thank you for coming to get me from my house, having fun with me , teaching me how to swim, teaching me what school is all about. I remember another time when you were doing your homework and I was helping you with it.... telling you the date, and helping you write your name. I loved just sitting with you talking. It was amazing. I loved the way we could just look at each other and know exactly what we both are thinking. I love you so much Hayley Grace Hutchison. You mean the world to me and you will always be in my heart and around my neck. Check on Breanna for me. Trust me you too will get along y’all are both goofy teehee! I love you. Forever my angel 🧚❤️

I hope your heart has been touched by God, and that you realize how distasteful both your user name and words are. Anna, please don't let words like this hurt you. You are Hayley's favorite person and I hope you feel comfort knowing that she is with you. She always shinned when she talked about you or was around you. I hope all is well, Anna. I miss her and I miss you.

“ She was the kind of person who loved other people more than herself. She was very aware of how the world worked. It depressed her and she couldn't deal with it sometimes. She definitely lived life to the fullest. She was just that way. There will never be another person on this Earth that can replace you. The world went crashing when I lost my co-pilot. I love you so much Hutch. I'm completely lonely now that you're gone. I can see that bright smile like it was yesterday.

I'll see you again baby girl. Rest now your pain is gone. 💕
