“ I never got the pleasure of meeting Mr. Hughes but if he raised a sweet, caring, and fun-loving lady like Karen Hughes Anderson then he must have been a very special man. I feel privileged that Karen shared special photos and memories of her father and brother with me. I know he is looking down upon his family with love, joy, and a big smile on his face. God Bless!

“ I lived with Hank and Marilyn (my sister) in Nashville for a while. Hank would come into the bedroom to kiss Marilyn goodbye before he went to work one morning he came into the bedroom to kiss her on the cheek it was dark and he couldn't see needless to say it wasn't Marilyn he kissed on the cheek. Marilyn thought that was the funniest thing.
