“ The late Horace Buford, Jr. the only son of the late Horace Buford, Sr. and Emma Croft'Buford. He was a fifth line descendant on his Mother's line of the Adams' Croft Clan from Ballplay'Gadsden Alabama.

Popularly known back in the day during his college years at TSU as the "Greek" Horace J was well liked and known for his kindness, jovial candid sense of humor.

Family bragged and 💕 His holiday ribs!!

Affectionally called ' Cuz' Horace J was a genius with computers, fixed them free for his family, had a strong sense of pride, adored and took care of his ailing, elder parents in their elder years.

As he joins the ancestors who sit at the feet of God, may his spirit be peaceful and rest in power. We love you Cuz.

“ Dwon,

I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act and thought of our lives. Their love leaves an unforgettable imprint in our memories. May God give you peace and understanding of his will.

Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family during this difficult time,

“ I am so sad to learn of this. I worked with Horace at Ingram Book Co., and he was a fun and delightful colleague, always willing to help others. Wishing his family and loved ones peace and comfort at this time.
