“ La'Don, you are an angel from God. You have been called home where you will always be young, will always be innocent, and will always have peace. Your journey was far too short and while we may never know the reason you had to leave us so soon, the lives you touched will forever be changed by your little smile, your baby hands, and your precious face. May God speed your soul into His steadfast arms and may those of us left behind be comforted knowing that you are right where you are meant to be--home. May God bless you and keep you, may He lift His loving eyes upon you and grant you the peace that passes all human understanding and keeps your heart and mind in true faith. All my love. Amen.
