“ When I was a young bride, of 20 Iram gave me my 1st cookbook. I still have it! She also taught me, when I was a young mother to relax, and not worry so much about being on a shedule. She was loved more than she ever knew and will be missed greatly.

“ Irma, being married to your grandson has been a blessing. I owe part of the man he has become to you. I wish I had more time with you.

Papaw Harold, thank you for the updates and the help getting us through this hard time from so far away.

Grandma Peggy, loss is always hard. Please remember that we are here and willing to do anything you need. Chris and I love you so much and want to thank you.

“ Grandma Irma, everytime I see a cat I will have a memory of you. As a young boy coming to visit you and Dad, there was never a shortage of them. Whether I played with them or terrorized them, It was a blast learning your stories of how they ended up at the house. Being your grandson was my honor and pleasure. Your soft spoken voice will be missed.

Grandpa Harold & Grandma Peggy, I want to take this opportunity to tell you I could never show enough appreciation for all you have done. You have made Grandma Irmas passing peaceful. You two are loved more than you know. Thank you very much.

“ Peggy all this beautiful, and I thank you, and I know Irma would for helping on her next journey.I remember the dinners with Grandmother Gordon,all the Aunts, Uncles, and all we girl cousins. I really thought we'd never get a boy, and then Little Bob was born. I have a picture of all the cousins on mom and dad's porch. So many memories come to the front. Dad was right when he said a lifetime is a short event. To Irma's living children my greatest condolences go out to them, and I know she and Paul are having a good conversation together right now.
