“ Jackie and I went to north high together and she was very nice to me. One day at the north high reunion she asked me why I didn't join in with the other girlfriend of Jackie's and I told her I didn't think they liked me and she said that they thought I didn't like them. Jackie was always the friendly person I know. She loved everyone and I honestly believed she did but I think she was loved by everyone in our class of '64 Will miss you but have fun with God and his angels

I never had an actual Baby Sister. The only one I ever had was Jackie Waggoner Harper and I couldn't have had a better one. She was everyone's baby sister and that's what we all called her. She was definitely a people person - a friendly, kind, sweet person - someone you wanted to be with. We didn't get to see each other a lot and when we did, it was talk, talk, catch up on everything, everyone, and talk some more. The world lost a Baby Sister but heaven gained an angel.
