

James Alan Clark

November 21, 1953 - July 19, 2022

James Alan Clark, 69, of Cookeville and Hermitage, TN, died July 19, 2022, in Nashville at Vanderbilt Hospital following a lengthy illness. He was born in Frankfurt, Indiana, on November 21, 1953. After college, he lived in Arizona for most of his adult life, then moved to Tennessee to be near family. Always generous with his talents, Jim enjoyed sharing produce from his garden and helping friends and neighbors repair and improve their houses by using his special skills in carpentry and woodworking. He will be missed by all who knew him. He chose cremation. An informal memorial service will be held at a future time.
