“ I really hate to hear this. I met Jim around 2007. He was a good man and I always enjoyed talking to him. I'll pray for the family.

Jeremiah Wheet - September 29, 2018 at 08:28 AM

“ Pam you are in my thoughts and hoping you find comfort from those that are around you offering their support.

David Mathis - August 18, 2018 at 04:14 AM

“ My deepest condolences to the family at this difficult time. I hope the words at Rev.21:4 bring you comfort. It says: "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Word's can't express the loss of one of the best friends and next door neighbors I have ever had . Only knew him for a few years but we bonded right away he was all way's there for me no matter what. We enjoyed the times we had together mowing our lawns at the same time parking under the trees to get out of the sun and just talk about every thing you could think of. You can tell what kind of man he was by all the things that are being said about him. Rest in Peace my dear friend.

“ Enjoyed working with your dad on the bike. It was always fun watching him smile a laugh at the crazy things Robert Polk would do as we all rode the bike.

May God be with you guys during these hard moments. He will always help to bring peace back into the home once everyone leaves. No matter what people may say or do he will be the one with perfect healing. May God Bless the family

“ To The Family:

I'm truly sorry for your loss. WHEN the cold hand of death reaches into a person's family and snatches away his mate or some other loved one, the shock of loss can be the severest emotional blow of his life, and the grieving process varies from one person to the next. Something that helped me at a similar time is written in the Bible, it explained the condition of the dead and that God will eradicate all things that causes pain

I hope this helps.

Sincerely,

Angie
