“ To Jim's family, please accept my sincere condolences. Though Jim is no longer suffering in pain, please know that our Heavenly Father knows how painful it is for those who are left behind to grieve. I pray that God's wonderful promises to resurrect all those who are temporarily sleeping in the grave back to a world free of sickness and death will bring you much comfort ... John 5:28, 29; Revelations 21:3.

It was my honor to have known him, and loved him threw the many years he was married to my mother, May. They traveled all over the United States, and spent many good years in Okeechobee, Florida during the winters. I knew Jim to be a good christian man, and family was most important to him. Jim will be missed terribly by my family, and we will always love him. I do believe he is in no pain, and he has been called home to Heaven to be with the Lord, and his loved ones that have gone before him. Suzy & John Yeik*
