“ To the Romines: I was saddened to hear of Jamie's passing. While I had not interacted with him in many years, when we were young teens he was always a very sweet young man and always very polite to me when I would hang out with Darrell and our friends. I remember the night he helped Tiffany (Gann) get me in the house the night I got sick and we were out and about. My heart goes out to his family and I will keep ya'll in my thoughts and prayers. May God give you the strength to get through this difficult period.

“ To: The family I am so sorry for your loss! To Jamie, We met when I was just a little child, you lived next to my grandmother and grandfather on Spain Ave. and you use to come over and play with my brother and I liked when my brother didn't come with us to my grandfathers because you use to come over and share the teeter totter with me and swing me because my feet was to short to reach the peddles and I remember we use to play football on the street as I got older we would through the ball for hours. Later on in life you married Stephanie Romines which is another great friend of mine that I have known all my life as well and I use to come and watch your children and just hang out and afterwards the next day we would have some great laughs. I could never forget you or your mom dad or brother because I have a scar on my hand to always remind me of you guys and that street from your dog Bulldog I had played with him a lot as a pup and I went away for the summer and he had gotten bigger and didn't know me any more but, even your dad thought it would be fine and he told me come over and pet him and he ws just playing with me but I had got scared and jerked my hand away and he had bit my hand and so I ware a scar on my right hand that will always remind me of you and your family! LOL You was always kind to me and once even saved my life as it started to rain me and Scott Barber and Jerad Barber was playing in the creek and they got out but as Jarad was getting out the rock we used to climb out slid out and I couldn't get out and the water was getting deep and Scott was afraid to tell his mom so when he saw you he ran and got you to come and help me get out I was so happy to see you reaching down to get me because I had first thought they had left me to drowned. When I got out you knew I wasn't suppose to be down there and you was like a cool big brother because you never told on me for being down there and you even wiped my tears and told me to shut up that I was fine and that you wasn't going to say anything and that I needed to stop crying so nobody would know I was down there. If it was not for you I would have probably been a Channel 5 News Story the headline would have read Local girl drowns in a creek..... Though I have not seen you in years it feels like just yesterday I was hanging out with you and Stephanie joking around and laughing, hard to believe just how fast time flies!!! I can not image what your mom and dad and wife and kids is going through but, I do pray that time will ease there pain and they will find a way to get through all this!! Nothing really can compare to the death of somebody you love! R.I.P. Jamie!!!! Lost but never forgotten!!!!

“ To the Romines Family I would like to take this time to express my condolences to the entire family. I know that Jamie was loved by so many people, I was just considering some of the shared expression that others had made. Yes he touched the lives of many. Many remember the good that he has done for them.. Likewise, God also remembers the good that we do. . He wants us to take comfort in His sacred writings. He knows what you are going through. He has gone on record in telling us that soon all sickness and death will be removed from the earth. ( Revelation 21:3-4) He wants you to take comfort in knowing that He is the source of all creative life. That being the case, even if our love ones die, they can be restored back to life. (John 5:28-29) Did you know that there are eight accounts in the bible that speaks of the resurrection hope? The are preserved in the bible as a future preview of the grand blessing to come. Here is one such example. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. In the days to come, perhaps when you get a chance to consider the account, why not think about how the verses would first apply to Jamie, as God uses His powers to restore him back to life. Then think about how the verse would next apply to all the family members and friends , As they become eye witnesses of this wonderful blessing from God. So from the scriptures, God is providing the family with loving comfort. He truly cares about us. The resurrection will take place; for God has given us His promised. He does not lie. ( Titus 1:2)

“ Jamie, . I've started this over several times! I'll never forget the 1st time we met you came out of your house with fuzzy house shoes on...we laughed so many times about that! We never imagined we'd get married, have 3 amazing kids & still be together 16 years later! Our life together was truly like a rollercoaster...crazy, scary, fun, exciting, breath taking & so much more! You had the biggest most kindest heart & tough as hell all wrapped in one! You were taken away from all of us way to soon! I am so glad you got to experience being a granddad...Nevaeh , Kenyele & Anyiah had the "coolest" Poppy ever! Those girls thought you hung the moon....Nick, LeLee, Gavin, Kayla, Jacob & Dustin loved you so much you would be just like a kid with them..you were the "cool" Uncle...But for us Jamie...the best most amazing thing we accomplished is our kids! Your smile, laugh, eyes, facial expressions & "attitude" will continue on in Dani, Jamie-Lynn & Corey!!! I might be talking in circles but I know you understand you always managed to get me like I did you! When we got married we became one & when I lost you a part of me went with you! Baby I know you are with me because I still feel you & I always will. I PROMISE YOU I WILL TRY TO BE STRONG AND TAKE CARE OF OUR KIDS TO BE THE BEST MOM! You always said you would never want or imagine anyone else being the Mother of your children...i will continue to make you proud! I LOVE YOU ALWAYS & FOREVER!!!!!!
