“ Jan took me in when i had nowhere to go. She was my friend when no one was there for me. She has done so much for so many while having nothing herself, never asking for anything back. She was simply complex. But that laugh omg! She was so proud of all of her kids, grands and great- grands. Ill never forget "watching church" and the spirited conversations we had. Im joyful, however, because i know she will be there welcoming me into heaven with all of her crowns of glory. Rest well with Ronnie till i get there sister. I love you.

“ I have so many memories but one I remember most is how she loved me as her own. Even after everything she always called me son. She loved all her grand kids so much. And we used to have so many laughs together her and Ronnie were one of a kind and she will be so missed. She always helped me as I did her and never did she ever ask me for anything. The last time we were together we had such a great supper and laughed the hole time. She was always good for a laugh and loved with all she could. The memories are so many that I can't really pick one but one thing I'll never ever forget is her walking my baby boy to pre school every morning and she really didn't have to. She was a great grand mother and mother in law.
