

Jao F. Makor

May 12, 1958 - October 5, 2023

Jao F. Makor, 65, of Madison, TN, passed away October 5, 2023. Born in the village Farvey, Liberia, Jao came to America in the early 1980s via a scholarship to TSU. He played football for TSU and earned his Master's Degree there. He played with the Philadelphia Eagles for one season in 1989. He later became head coach for Fisk University men's soccer team. He was friendly and loved to joke and eat, He is preceded in death by his parents, Doelo & Armai Makor; brother, Commuel Makor; auntie, Cercile Makor Premay. He is survived by a host of siblings, family and friends.

There are no services to announce at this time.

Tribute Wall

BR

“ love my brother and I miss those beautiful moment.

Beatrice Reese - November 03, 2023 at 12:32 PM

LG

“ Coach Makor was a passionate soccer coach and a strong supporter for Fisk University. I appreciated his dedication to the program while serving as head soccer coach there. This is a great lost to the soccer community. I pray that God continue to bless your family.

Larry Glover,

Larry Glover - October 19, 2023 at 05:02 AM