“ Our hearts are broken! We can't wrap our heads around this...can't understand why a thing like this happens - we can only seek the Lord for comfort and peace.

Jason was a great father, husband, son, brother, uncle, cousin and friend...overall a wonderful family man-loved by many. He will be missed by his family here but, I know he is having a reunion with family in heaven... embraced by Mom, Gram, Chris and Richard. There is no doubt that Richard and Jason are playing some throwdown music for Jesus.

To the family...we are praying daily for the Lord to wrap his arms around each one of you for strength/comfort. We will see you soon, we love you all!

“ Though we haven't know Jason very long, we've learned quickly that he had a wonderful knack for teaching our Boy scouts. His smiling face, laughter, consistency, and desire to teach our young sons his passion for knives, outdoors and funny movies will be missed greatly.

“ Jason had the rare ability to make anyone in the room feel comfortable. His selfless dedication to the Boy Scouts program made him an invaluable mentor to not only his son, but also to all the boys of Troop 133. In the brief time that I was honored to know him, I perceived him to be a man of integrity and an example to other men who wished to make family a priority in their lives. My heart and continued prayers go out to his wife and children.

“ There are so many descriptions of Jason’s admirable qualities written here – and he was every bit of them. Jason was indeed a rare and special person. As my co-worker for 10 years, Jason spoke of his family on a daily basis - ESPECIALLY his children. Jason had a special way of describing the things they said or did that brought him joy and conveyed the genuine warmth and love he had for them. As my friend, I valued and often confided in Jason’s objective and concise approach to all matters in life. Yet, to put seriousness aside, he always found the moment to make laughter when it was needed the most.

I will miss my dear friend, Jason Jarvis.

My sincerest condolences to all...

“ I loved my dad very much. Although we had our times, he still loved me. My dad was really into scouts with me. Next week is bsa summer camp, and my dad was going to go with me.. My dad's favorite bird was a cooper hawk, and i know he is watching me every day. There was whistleing that me and my dad would do when we would get sepperated , and sunday he whistled, I replied, and he answer back. i know he is my guardian angel. My family is proceeding 1 minute at a time. He changed my life and I hope he changed yours. I appreciate everyonesympaty towards me. I didn't think I would have to do this for 40 more years, but now is the time. It has been hard but life must go on. All we are is dust in the wind. My dad was bad company till the day he died. He was loved by many hated by none. He will be missed very badly. If any one who were to read this that dies before I, give my dad a big hug for me. My dad is in our hearts forever. God bless Jason Richard Jarvis, my dad. R.I.P daddy.

“ My memories of Jason are those of visiting Connie's, eating a magnificent meal. He was so happy and easy. We sometimes went downstairs to "Gram's" and drank her homemade lemonade. Jan, Terry, Hayley and Lindsey all send love and deep sympathy for the untimely loss of Jason. He is "Gone Too Soon" and while he will be deeply missed here, on this earth, in this life, heaven's real estate just got more valuable...

“ I met Jason in 2006 on Christmas Eve. It was my first Christmas with my now husband, Justin Reed, Jason's nephew. Jason had a special way of engaging with people and making others feel comfortable and welcome. My heart is heavy for everyone who was fortunate to know Jason. We have lost a special person and are rich to have experienced life with him. I'm grateful for the wonderful memories Jason created in my life in just the short period I knew him. May all who love Jason find comfort in knowing our lives have been enriched because of him.
