“ My very best memory of Jeff was making movies back in junior high and high school. Along with other classmates most notably Doug Crowe we made our own versions of James Bond type movies. Most recently I was able to visit with Jeff in Nashville where we would meet for lunch and or dinner and share memories of the good old days back in high school. To me Jeff had an amazing heart and he was a very kind and loving soul. I will cherish the time we spent together most recently in Nashville. Peace and strength to his family during this difficult time. Scott Totten
