“ Jerry always had a way of keying in on the important things. Whether it was asking about feedback from a family that he had provided the casket for or asking about my family he was always deliberate and direct. What a sense of humor - - always kept you laughing, wanting to hear more and being thankful that you were his friend. I will miss him very much.

“ Jerry worked for my grandfather (John McCormick) at McCormick Funeral Home many years ago. He had remained a dear family friend ever since. He would stop by and visit my grandfather often. I would see him at funerals, and it was amazing to see the sense of humor God blessed him with. He could walk into a room of people crying tears of sadness, and as soon as he got going, those tears of sadness would turn into tears of laughter. He will be missed by all, but his relationship with our Lord and Savior brings peace and comfort.

“ Jerry always had a smile and a kind word. Each time I was around him, he brightened my day. His love and devotion to his Lord Jesus Christ was evident and contagious. I will miss seeing him. Praying that God's loving presence would be felt among his family and friends as his life is honored and remembered.
Warmly, Kate Austin (funeral industry friend)
