“ Burton was such a tremendous loving, thoughtful, caring, and wonderful friend. He was my family, my cousin, and a great mentor as well as many other things He always had a voice of insightful reason and could be quite intuitive. This world shall never be the same without him. He is and will be missed.

“ I know we all die someday. It doesn't make it hurt any less. Burton was great friend. Mine and Burtons friendship was special. Sometimes I would think about Burton and then my phone rings and it's him. I would say "I was just thinking about calling you". He would say "I know". Then we would talk for an hour or more. He always has a lot to say and loved to listen. It hurts me knowing I didn't speak with him for nearly a month before his death. And it hurts knowing that I won't be able listen to him talk his heart out. I'm going to miss you Burton. I love you brother.
