“ Joe was our next door neighbor from 2005 to current, and my family couldn't have asked for a better, sweeter, or kinder person to be associated with than him. Joe's knowledge of Inglewood was nothing short of amazing, and he loved educating his neighbors about the history of our great little neighborhood. He watched my kids grow up, and loved spending time with them and spoiling them with gifts and treats as often as he could. If there is any solace to be had, it's that he is no longer in pain, and is finally with Jean again. He loved her with all of his heart.

We offer our most heartfelt condolences to Chris and the rest of the family, and want you all to know that he made a huge impression on all of us. Regards, F Hewes & Family

I remember meeting Joe when we first moved to Hemlock Avenue in 2013. It was as if we had known him for many years prior! Something about him made you want to hang out with him! So genuine, sincere, honest, caring and lovable!! You could learn so much listening to Joe! He had so many interesting stories and was very good at the way he told them. Never a boring moment if spent with Joe! He was definitely a family man and loved his wife and two boys! I cannot begin to express how very much we will miss him. We truly loved Joe and know that the neighborhood will never be the same without him! Thank you Joe for all the memories, laughs and for being like a father to us!
