“ Johnny and his family were our neighbors for over 20 years. We always found him to be a kind and generous man, a loving husband and a wonderful father. We will never forget the time he dressed us as clowns and we won first place at a party. Please accept our sincere sympathies. Diane and Sarah May God and your happy memories give you strength to make it through this sad time.

“ To the family,

My deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. Words cannot express the pain you are feeling but, God promises soon to take it away and replace your tears of sadness with joy when he returns your loved one to your family (Revelation 21:4; John 5:28,29)
