“ Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. We are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised (soon) that death will be done away with...swallowed up forever. (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28, 29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one, and the precious memories left behind, that you will also find much comfort in God's promises to us for the near future, for they will not fail to come true. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.

“ You are now an angel in heaven. Wish you were here but God had to take you back to help in the fight up there for peace, love and understanding. You are only gone for a short while until we all die and come back to see you again. You were a great father to my Xiona. She loves and misses you so much! She wishes that she could have said goodbye but I guess that wasn't in the cards for her. Always remember you were there for my Noel and loved her as well. Grandma also has very fond memories of you. I loved going and watching you play football and the times that we shared in Duncan. I also wished that I could have said so long to you but that wasn't what I could do either. Please forgive me for not keeping in touch with you. It was hard after the divorce and all that happened. But know that I forgave you for all you did and that I love you very much! Rest in peace my son!
