“ Stan:

Sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. May the peace of Christ be with you during this time.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. There is a very comforting scripture found at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can look forward to a time when death will be done away with forever. I hope that this scripture can bring some comfort during this time.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the your loss. Death is truly an enemy. (1 Cor 15:26) However, this verse contains the hope that we all look forward to when this enemy “will be brought to nothing.” Until that time, be assured that your pain is shared by many, including God, who makes the promise to “swallow up death in victory”. (Isaiah 25:8) May this hope comfort you in your time of grief.

“ My loving Joel...Wished I had've met the woman who brought such a supportive friend to my life! From what was gleaned from listening to others you and the family were showered with a unique mother with character and grace. Anything that ever crosses your mind that's needed...know I'll come a running.

“ What a sweet soul she was! As soon as I met her I knew where you got your quick wit from! It was always so much fun listening to the two of you together--a real comedy team! No matter how big the curve ball you threw at her, she would always have the funniest come back line to out wit you! She always had the "one up" on you! I treasure the times I got to spend with Joan! I know she is having fun up there in Heaven with everyone, and she's looking for a place to get "her hair done!" Joan and her hair--so cute! Big hugs, Joel! We're right here for you buddy! I love you so much!

“ What a wonderful and sweet lady. She still had a living poinsettia in her room at the nursing home we gave her Christmas 2015. Thriving. Amazing what God and Love can do. We know She is with Our Lord. Prayers for Stanley Joel Churchwell and Family.
