

Julian Bradford Bobbitt Jr.

February 19, 1960 - March 13, 2025

Julian “Brad” Bobbitt, Jr., 65, of Nashville, passed away March 13, 2025. Brad was an excellent artist who spent his career as a graphic artist. He loved music. Brad attended lots of concerts and had a huge collection of music. In addition to collecting music, he collected old tools and knives. He was a loyal and respectful friend to many. He remained a lifelong friend to those he grew up with in East Nashville and to many of his co-workers. Brad will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, JB and Sandra Bobbitt; and siblings, Ricky Bobbitt and Betty Casperson.

Brad is survived by his daughter, Angela Wilkerson; Sisters, Rita Parish, Ann (Jim) Elkins, and Sherri (David) Armstrong; Grandchildren, Brendan Wilkerson, Danielia Wilkerson, and Matthew Wilkerson; and longtime friend, Kimberly Ingle. He is also survived by many other friends and family members.

A memorial service for Brad will be held at Madison First Cumberland Presbyterian Church (735 Argle Ave, Madison, TN) on Friday, March 21, 2024, at 1:00. Service will be led by Rev. Leo Bourque. Visitation with the family and friends will occur from 12:00-1:00 at the church.

Previous Events

Visitation

MAR 21. 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM (CT)

Madison First Cumberland Presbyterian Church
735 Argle Ave
Madison, TN 37115

Celebration of Life

MAR 21. 1:00 PM (CT)

Madison First Cumberland Presbyterian Church
735 Argle Ave
Madison, TN 37115