

June Laverne Smith

November 10, 1925 - November 9, 2012

June was born November 10, 1925 in Nashville, TN. She is survived by her son, Chris Smith; daughter-in-law, Nancy Buchanan; grandson, Chad Smith and his wife Amber Smith; granddaughter, Chas Smith; great-grandchildren, Alexander Nash Smith and Abigail Lane Smith. June enjoyed spending time with her family. She loved Elvis and enjoyed music of all varieties from big band to The Doobie Brothers. Her favorite movie was "Gone with the Wind", and she enjoyed watching soap operas, which she called her "programs". She loved to walk along the beach and collect seashells. She enjoyed baking, and loved animals. She had numerous cats and dogs throughout her life. She was a patron of the arts, and she enjoyed visual art such as paintings and photography.

June was a hard worker; she diligently cared for many people throughout her life. She adored dance and was a dance instructor. She worked as a photographer in a portrait studio in her early twenties and then began working at the Metro Courthouse as an administrative assistant for the next 30 years. After retiring from the Courthouse, she worked for Jermaine Montaigne Cosmetics for several years. Later in life she did in home care work for elderly individuals. June was a hard worker. In her last days, her little Jack Russell Terrier, Cooper, was her constant companion, and she enjoyed the company of her son, daughter-in-law, grandchildren, and 2 great-grandchildren. She was an incredibly kind and generous person, and she genuinely loved to be amongst other people. She was always positive and uplifting. Always one to crack a joke, she was the life of the party; she possessed unparalleled storytelling abilities. Above all else, she was loving and loyal, and she will be sorely missed. Visitation with the family will be at Phillips-Robinson Funeral Home Wednesday, November 14th from 4-8pm. Funeral services will be held Thursday, November 15th at 2pm in the chapel.
