“ Kathie and I would often go on home tours around Nashville, and laugh about how some of the homes were poorly decorated. She would laugh when I would get her birthday wrong and would tell me thanks for any day that I would wish her happy birthday. LOL!! She had a great sense of humor. She will be missed but, she now has another journey to embark upon.

I mer Kathie and Skip when we lived on Pennington Bend. We had a group of friends that met from time to time for brunch. She was one smart, strong, clever, and funny lady. Our condolences to the family ❤️

“Kathie was my first friend in Tennessee. 37 years ago, she & another sweet woman bought a chocolate cupcake & put a candle on it so a lonely Texas transplant would have a little birthday happy. For most of those years, we worked together, celebrated each other’s families & support during sad times. I will miss you Kath ..... the sun seems a little less bright without your laughter, smile & quick wit. I love you my friend! Lynn
