

Kenny Ray Brown

November 24, 1971 - January 25, 2026

Kenny Ray Brown, born November 24, 1971, age 54, of Ashland City, Tennessee, passed away on January 25, 2026.

Kenny was a devoted father, son, and friend whose kindness and generosity touched everyone he met. He was always willing to help anyone in need and never hesitated to lend a hand, offer advice, or share a laugh.

He is survived by his beloved daughters, Ragan (Cole) and Layla Brown; his girlfriend, Stacie Taylor; his parents, Kenneth and Karen Brown; his brothers and sisters and lots of aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, as well as cousins; and his first grandchild on the way, Sutton Mae, who he was so excited to meet.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Patricia Hardison.

Kenny had a deep love for the outdoors and for sports. He especially enjoyed playing and watching golf, spending time hunting and fishing, and cheering on Vanderbilt University. Some of his happiest moments were spent on the golf course or outdoors with family and friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Pebble Brook Golf Course on February 8, 2026, from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Family and friends are invited to bring a copy of their favorite photo of Kenny and plenty of stories to share in honor of his life.

Kenny will be remembered for his big heart, his love for his family, and the countless lives he made better simply by being part of them.
