“ Hey dad, Was playing around on the Internet and ran across this. I miss more and more everyday. So does Gavin. He doesn't show it, but he has his feelings like you did. I know you're doing good up there, and I know you're not looking down on me. I know you're also with me in every mistake and every one I make. You're not physically here for the broken hearts, the middle school ceremony's, the laughs, the pictures, but I know you're there in spirit. I see you soon. I love you "to infinity and beyond"

“ Khris ~

One of the last messages you posted on your facebook page will also resonate with me how you were so thankful to God for your life and your family ~

Life is so short and never promised to us or certain.

It is important for all of us to remember this and YOU for this is yet another example of just how short life is ~

I will never forget your kind heart and spirit and the prettiest blue eyes I've ever seen ~

I pray for you, your children & your family ~

May God Bless and surround all of them with love and peace ~

“ I can't remember in our last conversation if I told you that I loved you..... I hope I did..... or at least somehow you knew it..... you certainly deserved at least that from me..... I wasn't prepared to say "I will miss you".... always assumed you would just be here..... now that your gone, how do you say goodbye?

Khris, I will pledge my prayers for peace, healing and acceptance for your children and your family. I will also pray that the love that you showed them will forever be fresh in their hearts and always on their minds.

God bless you and keep you..... and now take you home....

“ I met Khris this past summer working on a film. It was awesome getting to know Khris. He helped me with my job as a grip. I really appreciated that. I know he loved his family. He talked about them often. My kids called him the Rooster guy who loved spiders and knives. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Bennett family. Blessings

“ Hard to express my pain over losing you my brother. You were a very large and very important part of my life, especially as we were growing up. The person I am today is a reflection of the time we spent together throughout life...and I am proud and thankful for having known you the way that I did, the way only true homies can know one another. You were a great friend and a great man with one of the biggest hearts I have ever known...even if you were always tough on the outside. You need to know that the bonds we have are everlasting in my heart, and you will never be forgotten. Thank you for your friendship. Thank you for the wonderful moments, the great times, the everlasting memories, and the love you have left behind in this world. You will be truly missed by many. My only comfort is knowing you have peace. RBC forever my brother, forever. I love you Khris.

“ If tears could build a stairway and memories were a lane..We would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken..
No time to say goodbye..You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why..
Our hearts still ache in sadness and secret tears still flow..
What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know..But now we know you want us to mourn for you no more..
To remember all the happy times..Life still has much in store..Since you'll never be forgotten, we pledge to you today..A cherished place within our heart is where you'll always stay Praying for you
