“ I am truly saddened by the loss of my friend, Kirk! I met him 10 years ago through his mother, Glenda, God rest her soul! She was always talking about him and when he came to church that first time, she had already told him about my seizure disorder! She knew that I was scared and apparently she had told Kirk, so when I met him, I don't really know how to describe the instant feeling of calmness and understanding from a guy who was going through the same medical thing as me but Kirk immediately shook my hand and let me know that it was going to be alright! Then we got to know each other and this sweet man would text me at least twice a week just to check on me and reassure me that I wasn't going through this alone, that he was there and willing to listen! He spoke softly but his smile and big kind heart just pulled you in and you knew that when you became friends with him, you had a friend, a true friend in your corner through your darkest hour to your most jubilant time! I cannot express to his family enough just how sorry that I am about the passing of my friend but I want you to know that the family are in my prayers and to say Thank You for sharing you beloved Kirk with everyone that knew him. He will be missed!
