“ Some of my favorite memories as a kid were when the whole family got together for Christmases and Thanksgivings at Uncle Larry’s house. He always made the best smoked turkey. He will be deeply missed.

“ I'm sad to read of Larry Joe Carter's death. He was a very kind friend of my late husband, Howard Holland and mine. We so enjoyed conversations with Larry.
Howard taught and loved Larry's daughter Senthly at Sunday School, First Baptist Church of Joelton. Love and sincere prayers for Larry's loved ones.

“ Larry was more like a brother to me than a cousin. We spent so much time together. When he caught me out late at time , he would follow me all the way home. I will miss so much.
