“ The picture you chose is perfect! I hadn't seen Laura for 20 years, but the joy in her eyes, and that smile she shared with everyone, is exactly how I remember her. She is a tribute to her parents and family.

“ I met Laura when she moved to Nashville in the '90s to work for HCA Corporate and we became close friends for the next 20 years. Laura was smart as a whip, wickedly funny and we shared many interests except for Alabama football and cats. Our get-togethers were always laughter filled and memorable. Laura was a treasure and will be greatly missed by those who knew her.

“ I was employed at the HCA Corporate office in Nashville some of the time when Laura worked there. She was a kind person to everyone she came in contact with, and above all, she always conducted herself as a lady.
