“ We met on September 30, 2015. It was a six-week work assignment. When the assignment was over we went our separate ways. I saw her again at the same place a few months later. I had no idea God was putting one of the greatest gifts I would ever receive before me. She was my world, one of the best friends I ever had. Seven of the best years of my life. She was a part of my heart and soul and without her life will not be the same. Rest in peace my dear friend. Rafael Garcia
