

Lena Pardue Green

October 26, 1908 - March 30, 2012

GREEN, Lena Pardue- Age 103, daughter of Hettie and Jefferson Lee Pardue, went home early Friday morning, March 30, 2012. She clearly heard at the Gates of Heaven her Savior say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." She was a wonderful example of a Christian woman who spoke her mind and stayed steadfast to her faith. She was dearly loved by her family and friends, and we will cherish our times with her always. Lena is preceded in death by her husband, Frank L. Green. Lena is survived by her daughters, Rose A. Green and Joanna Freund (Thomas Freund); 4 grandchildren, Charles A. Freund, Susan K. Strode, Linda G. Bull, and Wendy K. Elizardo; 5 great-grandchildren. Visitation at Phillips-Robinson funeral Home Sunday from 3-5pm. Service Monday at 2pm, Dr. Charles Worrell officiating. Interment at Woodlawn Memorial Park.

“ I only met her once, at her 102nd birthday, she was so sweet and active. She is s beautiful lady and will forever be a part of the people who were blessed to meet her.

“ I remember visiting aunt Peggy at her house when I was little boy. I also got to visit her in the home. Its not going to be the same world without her. I know she is in a better place, but I wish I could see her one last time.

“ I will be forever grateful for my "great" Aunt Peggy. She was an exemplary Christian woman and had a huge impact on my life. I will always cherish the summer I lived with her while working at Opryland USA as a college student. She was both proudly old-fashioned, yet astutely modern in her thinking. She was a surrogate mother and grandmother to me and a terrific aunt. At every visit, she always had a ready recollection of what was going on in my life and with my family. Her shining example of faith, grace, and love will live on in my heart. May God richly bless her family and friends. - Teresa (great niece, granddaughter of Herbert A. and Rebecca Pardue)

P.S. On a light note, I hope if squirrels go to heaven, that she has reunited with Tony!
