“ Leonard was a Bordeaux brother, classmate and friend but more than that he was an incredible drummer back in our mid teens we formed a band we played sockhops, party's and various clubs like VFW, we came to play the battle of the bands at Cumberland high and won his incredible drumming in a song I'm gonna carry you back now called wipe out helped us win that night in 1967 to memorialize that night Leonard gave me his drum sticks I still have them and looking forward to giving them to his daughter, I know they ment a lot to him.
