“ Grandma Oakley was pretty and funny. It was always fun to see her. Mary would tell me stories about her on occassion. Loved hearing them! Sorry I couldn't be there in person to show my respect for her and my love for the family.

“ I worked with Tommie at the Dept of Revenue where she was known as "The Donut Lady". She always greeted everyone with a warm smile and was just a joy to be around. I currently have the pleasure of working with her son, Richard. My thoughts and prayers are with Richard and all the family at this time. Joan

“ Tommie was such a wonderful person. I had the pleasure of working with her at the Department of Revenue for several years. She was so full of energy and always had a funny story to tell. May God be with your family during this difficult time. There are to many memories to mention, but I will cherish her friendship always as my outlook on life was improved just to know her. Karen
